We've rounded up some tips for reducing your environmental impact this season, from last-minute (sustainable) gifting to recycling rules for the holiday and every day. When it's time to reclaim your living room, look for local guidelines regarding tree pickups or drop-off locations. We appreciate your business.

Reduce, Reuse, Rejoice

 Enroll in Paperless Billing
Use less paper – and keep all your bills from getting lost in holiday mail – by enrolling in Paperless Billing.

 Donate Decorations
Bring holiday cheer to a local senior citizen center or after-school program by donating some of your extra decor.

 Reuse Boxes
Upcycle cardboard boxes for gifts, then break them down before adding them to your recycling container.

 Think Twice for Holiday Lights
String lights don't belong in your curbside recycling – check with local government, retailers or programs for drop-off locations.

Recycle Right

Recycle clean bottles, cans, paper and cardboard.

Keep food and liquid out of your recycling.

No loose plastic bags and no bagged recyclables
